Sacrament of Reconciliation

Every Catholic has a responsibility of celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least once a year, but frequent confession is recommended. A Priest is in the confessional here at Saint Michael the Archangel Roman Catholic Parish every Saturday from 4:30PM-5:00PM and every Sunday from 8:30AM-9:00AM and 10:30AM-11:00AM.

Holy Mass

Every Catholic has a responsibility of celebrating Holy Mass every Sunday, which is the Lord's Day. Our Sunday Holy Mass schedule at Saint Michael's is as follows:

Saturday Vigil Mass	5:00PM
Sunday	9:00AM and 11:00AM
We also celebrate Holy Mass daily at Saint Michael's:
Monday thru Friday	12:05PM

Helping your Child to Learn how to Pray

Our attitude toward God affects our prayer. The way we learn to pray as children influences the way we enter into the worship of the believing community. Here are a few tips for praying with children:

- have scheduled time for prayer with your child each day (e.g., before going to bed)
- pray with your children. Do not have them put on a show for you by just praying in front of you, but invite them to pray with you. It is very important that children see their parents praying.
- use simple prayers that children can easily learn: the Our Father, the Hail Mary, the Holy Rosary...
- use sacramentals to help with prayer: Holy Pictures, Crucifix, Rosary, Holy Bible...
