Archangels

St. Michael: "The Prince of Light"

St. Michael holds the highest rank of the Archangels and is perhaps the most famous of all. He protects and defends all that is loving and good, and leads the other legions of angels in the battle against evil and the fallen angels. Michael most often appears to people who are sick or near death. He is the patron Saint of the Military and of police as well as the patron Saint of loners and those who find themselves in the under-dog position.

In art St. Michael is represented as an angelic warrior, fully armed with helmet, sword, and shield (often the shield bears the Latin inscription: Quis ut Deus), standing over the dragon, whom he sometimes pierces with a lance. He also holds a pair of scales in which he weighs the souls of the departed (cf. Rock, "The Church of Our Fathers", III, 160), or the book of life, to show that he takes part in the judgment. (Next time you visit the office, take a look at the beautiful picture of St. Michael, which is hanging in the entrance.)

St. Gabriel: This loving angel who's name means "Hero of God," is the bearer of GOOD NEWS as the voice of God. This archangel is a messenger who whispers in our ear of coming events, changes, and opportunities for new experiences

St. Raphael: The Angel of Healing - Raphael, who's name means "God Heals," is charged with the healing of our beloved Earth and all of her inhabitants. He begins with purifying our minds and erasing false beliefs.

Though there are other Archangels, these three are the most notably.
